Referral Programs from Danielle!

This may not be a right fit for you now...but I really think you should take a look. I have partnered with the doctors that created Proactiv. Now what they did for Acne, they are doing for Aging skin. Instead of using infomercials as they did in the 1990s, they initially launched their products in high-end department stores in 2002. Fast forward to 2008, they decided the best way to reach more people would be through direct selling.....that is where you come in!

If this is not for you, I'm offering a referral incentive if you can connect me with people that may be interested! I thank you for your help and value you all in my life.

I could go on and on, but if you have the SLIGHTEST bit of interest, please call me 732-259-5436.
